Designed by the famous architect Kenzo Tange and Associates Tokyo, the Romeo is the most innovative hotel of Naples. Offering a perfect blend of design, contemporary art, luxury antiques and the highest quality of "Made in Italy", the hotel represents nowadays an authentic travel experience. Inaugurated at the end of 2008, the property has launched new outlets in April 2011 confirming its exclusive nature on the Italian and international hospitality scenario: a luxury 1000 square-metre spa; a new ballroom for private events, named Beluga and located on the 9th floor with astonishing views over the Bay of Naples, Mt. Vesuvius and Capri island, in addition to the already well-known Il Comandante gourmet restaurant, and the Zero Sushi Bar & Restaurant.
