

Client: Romeo Hotel
Source: The Bite
Date: Summer 2019

Reproduced by Gorkana under licence from the NLA (newspapers), CLA (magazines), FT (Financial Times/ft.com) or other copyright owner. No further copying (including printing of digital cuttings), digital reproduction/forwarding of the cutting is permitted except under licence from the copyright owner. All FT content is copyright The Financial Times Ltd.

Client: Romeo Hotel
Source: The Bite
Date: Summer 2019

bitetravel

Romeo Hotel, Naples, Italy

With amazing views over the Tyrrhenian Sea, Romeo Hotel is the perfect setting from which to explore the city's centuries-old treasures. The city of Naples has quite an interesting history, having once been the seat of an entire kingdom and thus offers grand palaces and promenades, magnificent castles and dozens of decorated churches. A crossroad that has a mixed culture of Spanish, Greek and French influences, the joy is in discovering what is behind the hidden doors and narrow backstreets.

There is plenty to do here with Romeo Hotel being less than an hour's distance of nine listed UNESCO World Heritage Sites and a 40-minute ferry ride to the nearby islands such as Positano or Amalfi. For art lovers, a visit to the Museo di Capodimonte, southern Italy's richest and largest art gallery is a must-see. Here you can admire Caravaggio's The Flagellation of Christ and see other countless art masters' work including Raphael, Titian, Botticelli and Bellini.

The hotel itself has 79 rooms and suites as well as two restaurants including the Michelin-starred rooftop restaurant Il Comandante which serves Mediterranean cuisine for lunch and dinner while the Japanese designed Bar 9850 has over 1000 types of wine and cocktails to enjoy with an aperitivo. Located on the 9th floor adjacent to the contemporary Beluga Lounge Bar & Terrace with views out to Ischia and Capri is Romeo Hotel's outdoor pool and Dogana de Sale, a state-of-the-art spa meaning 'Salt Customs House'.

www.romeohotel.it/naples

Images courtesy of Ann Scott Associates